

APPLICATION PACKAGES INCLUDED IN THE FLYSKY REFRESH AND REFRESH+ OFFER

Application package Animals

Number of applications: 6

The „Animals” package includes interactive applications, that teach sound recognition and animal names, while developing perception and concentration. Users can discover the fascinating world of fauna, gaining knowledge about nature in an engaging and educational way.

Application package Mathematics

Number of applications: 5

The „Mathematics” application package develops calculation skills, logical thinking and analysis through interactive games with addition and subtraction. Through engaging challenges, students gain confidence and learn practical use of mathematics in everyday life.

Application package Coding I and Coding II

Number of applications: 13

The applications included in the „Coding” package are a great opportunity to learn how to code, solve path building exercises and explore the art of planning. Thanks to them, children will gain the foundations of programming, which are so important in today's world of technology.

Application package Fun

Number of applications: 7

Enter a magical land of interactive play, where creativity opens the door to extraordinary adventures! This package offers engaging games and activities that capture children's attention while supporting their development by learning new skills and discovering their own interests.

Application package Coloring Books

Number of applications: 6

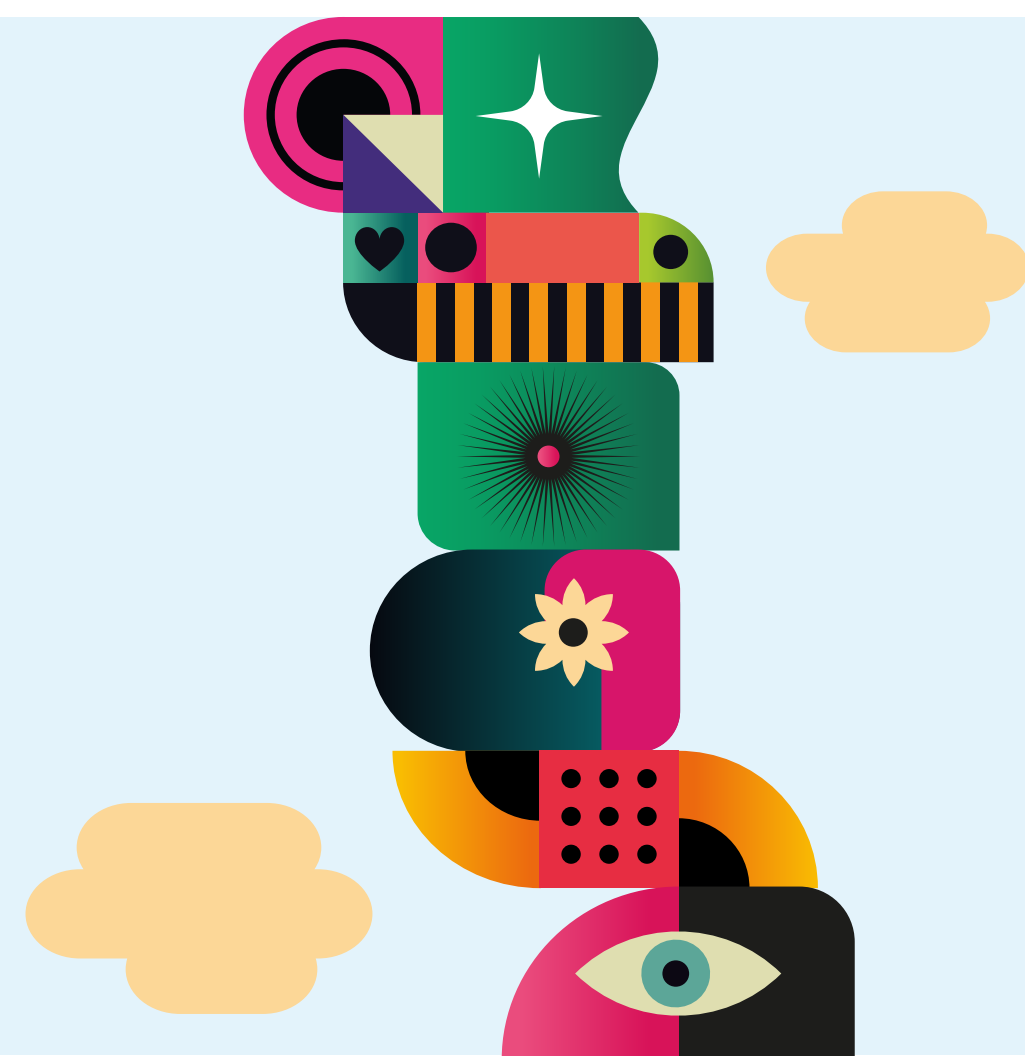

The „Coloring Books” package is an excellent tool for developing fine motor skills and writing skills. With these applications, children can express themselves by creating their own works of art. The interactive pen makes the development of manual skills a real pleasure.

Application package Interactive Backgrounds

Number of applications: 10

Interactive backgrounds are an educational experience that combines movement and interaction, supporting the development of coordination and sensory integration through various activities. It's a great way to learn through play with friends, supporting comprehensive development.

Application package SEN - ASD

Number of applications: 6

The „SEN - ASD” package supports the development of communication and social skills of people with autism spectrum disorder, based on an individual and advanced educational approach. Tasks take into account different levels of difficulty and use material from the environment and life experiences of participants, as well as their potential interests.

Application package Language package (English)

Number of applications: 10

Language learning applications package supports the development of language skills at different levels, offering varied tasks tailored to individual users' needs. With interactive exercises based on everyday situations and interests, learning becomes engaging, effective and practical.

Application package Quiz Fortress & Quiz Rope

Number of applications: 2

Quiz Fortress and Quiz Rope are interactive challenges that develop knowledge, memory and logical thinking skills. With a variety of questions from many fields, users learn in an attractive way while practicing quick decision-making.

